AS WE GATHER: It is still Advent, but today we hear an account of the Christmas story early so that we may know what to look for later this week. The Son of Mary by the Holy Spirit is Jesus, who saves us from our sins and who fulfills the promise of Immanuel: God is with us. Perhaps the richness of the details of Luke's account sometimes distracts us from the message. The Lord has come to keep His Word, to save us from our sins, and to keep us in His hand so that we may be His eternally. None of this was obvious to either Mary or faithful Joseph, and yet the Lord was at work through it all to deliver to us His Son to be our Savior. We will still worry when things do not go as we plan, and we will still struggle with doubts and fears, but the angel of God's presence is no mere messenger sent in His place. No, the angel of God's presence is His only-begotten Son, whose name is Jesus and whose work is our salvation.

WELCOME VISITORS! Please fill out a Welcome Card (located in the card holders in pews) and give to Pastor after the service and receive a special welcome gift. A mother's room and restroom are located at the left rear of the church. May you find this a place of spiritual rest and renewal.

DECEMBER SAINTS CONTINUED: St. Ambrose was born in Trier, Germany, in 340 A.D. These were the days of the Roman Empire, recently declared for the Christian faith. He was of noble birth, & his father was of the ruling Senatorial class. He was educated for & pursued for a time a career in politics. His father died; he moved to Rome, & became governor of the region of Milan. One thing led to another, & he wound up, being elected Bishop of Milan. He took his appointment seriously, spent long hours in study, and gained a reputation as a brilliant theologian, & wrote many works on theology.

Ambrose is often pictured in a bishop's garb, with pastoral staff and with a beehive. Legend says that when he was an infant, bees built a hive under his cradle, signifying that one day he would be great. He packed a lot into a few short years, producing many robust theological works, which are read & studied by seminary students to this day. It is well documented that Ambrose really practiced what he preached. When he was elected bishop, he divested himself of his riches, donating the proceeds to the poor, lest his role as bishop & commitment to Christ be compromised. Secondly, Ambrose was an excellent preacher, but an even better teacher. He is a reminder to us of the importance of Christian education. Ambrose had a "run in" with the Roman Emperor, Theodosius the First. The emperor had slaughtered thousands during the uprising, including women & children. Ambrose confronted him and let him know he was wrong. Government has its place, the scriptures tell us. But what about when government crosses the line and compels us to act against our faith? The apostles when told to stop preaching responded by saying: "We must obey God rather than men." Ambrose sets before us that our allegiance above all is to God and His Word.
